DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-20 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: prior art, U.S. Patent # 6,051,999 of To et al., does not teach nor render obvious an apparatus for controlling operation of an amplifier device when supply voltage provided to said amplifier device varies at an input voltage supply locus that has, in combination with other limitations, an output circuit coupled with said output locus and coupled with said amplifier device, said output circuit generating said compensating current when said output signal has a predetermined value; nor does it have a method for compensating operating current in an amplifier device when supply voltage to said amplifier device decreases below a predetermined value at an input voltage supply locus; the method comprising the steps of, in combination with other limitations, providing a second control circuit coupled with said first control circuit and coupled with said amplifier device, operating said second control circuit to effect said compensating in response to said output signal.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. U.S. Patents # 6,051,999, # 5,347,224, # 5,640,122, # 6,262,616 B1, # 5,793,194, and # 6,211,661 B1 contain some limitations of the claimed invention.
